~PROLOGE~

The gang are at Marker's place for a videogame hangout, he & Lightning had bought an official copy of the original Super Mario Bros for the NES and were eagerly awaiting it's arrival, as BH & Cherry Jr go off into the kitchen to prepare some snacks the doorbell rings exciting the two gamers as their game had finally come.

But upon opening the box they find themselves with a bloody cartridge with the word "MARIO" written on the sticker while Marker was sad and Lightning upset that they got scammed with what's most likely a crude knockoff Tree suggests giving it a go anyway as a means of humourism.

Lighting pops in the cartridge hoping it better not mess up his console and begins playing as everyone else watches, so far the game seems to play normally save for the bad music and goofy sound effects that is until he dies to a goomba that the screen goes staticy with the agonizing screams of Mario ringing into everyone's ears before it suddenly stops leaving the screen dark.

Lightning gets more mad thinking the game had some kind of malware and attempts to take the game out suddenly a hand lurches out the TV and grabs Lightning pulling him in. Everyone jumped up to try and save him slowly getting pulled in themselves, Black Hole finally returns and seeing Tree's legs in the tv drops everything to save them but not even his strength was good enough and the whole team falls into the void.

IT'S A ME..!

The gang wake up finding themselves in what looks like the super mario world but something about it just wasn't right.. Lightning looks around as the others make sure that they're okay and bumps into someone the stranger turns to introduce himself.

???: Oh, you are looking for someone? You don't-a seem to recognize me. It's-a me..

Horror Mario: MARIO! Almost.

The team stood back freaked out.

H. Mario: Oh don't-a be scared, I'mma not gonna kill you. Yet. I want to have fun with you before I end your little lives!

Black Hole steps forward with a hint of confidence and takes on a dramatic fighting stance not amusing 'Mario' he then attempts to harness his gravitational ability only for nothing to happen, all he can do it levitate.

Black Hole: W-Wha...?

H. Mario: Oh don't-a bother using your powers they're pathetic here. This is MY WORLD!

Liy: What do you want from us?

H. Mario: Like I said, I like to have fun with my victims before I kill you. This little challenge was inspired from my last ones. Three songs, just three you can decide between who you want to go up against me. If you win, I let you go. Lose, and perish by my hands!

Death P.A.C.T. ask for a moment to discuss this and huddle together whispering for a minute before accepting the challenge and sending out Liy to take him on. The Mario look-alike calls upon a paradrybones to drop some microphones to the group and they get started. (While BH stands there flabbergasted)

STARMAN SLAUGHTER + WARP STAR

Horror Mario: Hahahahaha! Oh this is a so much fun! How about we kick things UP A NOTCH?

This evil form of Mario grabs the group and throws them in the air landing on platforms on top seemingly endless fire and the castle in the distance.

Both Tree & Black Hole get up each grabbing microphone and see Horror Mario standing on another platform right in front of them. Things are about to get serious...

after the song

Black Hole stares down the horribly disfigured Mario now intensely angry, his natural protective nature kicks in believing they shouldn't take anymore chances with this guy and grabs the rest of his friends forming an object chain only for them to fall again due to BH's lack of full on flight. However this fall stops quickly as they spot themselves on what looks like a star and suddenly vanish leaving the burnt Mario to himself.

Horror Mario: So, they have found the warp star... Which means.. eventually.. they'll stumble across the others.

He laughs as his right arm grows back.

Horror Mario: But don't-a worry, MARIO WILL GET YOU NEXT TIME!

Meanwhile the our heroes land on a pathway lined with other warp stars with only the one in front of them active. Unsure of what to do or how to even begin finding a way back home they all agree to keep pressing on and stay together as much as possible as they enter the next world, Irregularity Isle.

IRREGULARITY ISLE

Since the first world song parts are so short all three are going into chapter, enjoy!

"SO COOL"
Pen, Bottle & Pie find themselves in a room of sorts with RGB lighting and a desk with a monitor on top. Pen puts on the headphones curiously as a video plays out, a promotion of the already released Super Mario Bros Movie.

Miyamoto: First, of course, is Mario; who will be played by Chris Pratt.

Chris Pratt: It's-a me, I'm Mario.

"NOURISHING BLOOD"
After a while waiting Pen, Bottle & Pie come out from the level reuniting with Death P.A.C.T. it seems that some 'levels' may only allow a few people in at once.

For now they press on when Marker falls through one of those portals with Remote jumping down after him, they both land in yet another dark space that is until the bright light-blue background takes over and they hear..

???: GRAND DAD!

"MARIO SING AND GAME RHYTHM 9"
Once Marker & Remote got out of the bootleg memescape the gang look up the end of the ladder to see a giant sonic ring, why was this here? Cherry Jr doesn't hesitate to jump through prompting his worried father to go after him.

They two land on a platform in the middle of a pretty starry night taking on new forms, Cherry Jr appeared to be a soft adorable eevee while Black Hole seemed to resemble Mewtwo, ahead of them stood a weird looking Mario with the body shape of a rival videogame icon Sonic who seemed to be challenging them to a rap battle.

Now, onto the Woodland of Lies

WOODLAND OF LIES

"ALONE"

After the team find themselves in a new world Tree discovers a dark trail leading to what looks like a storm covered mansion. He encourages Bottle to come with him so he's not at a risk of harm without anyone not knowing.

They go through and upon reaching the other side they find that they've become ghosts somehow but what stook out to Tree the most was someone sitting in the rain with just a daisy in his hand, his green cap hid most of his face humming a tune to himself clearly in a state of despair or even loss..

"THALASSOPHOBIA"

Death P.A.C.T. soon spot a tower and go in to investigate, Bottle and Pen went another way from the rest of the group and out into a courtyard that seemed rather safe.

Pen explored when Bottle called over very worried and they both see Luigi trapped in the fountain reaching out for help.

While Bottle was nearly in tears Pen tries the best he can to grab the plumbers hand.

"I HATE YOU" (Oh god no remains the same but Death P.A.C.T. do witness what happens)

As Mario looks over he befallen brother and walks off Tree reaches out only for Fanny to stop him and shake her head saying it ain't worth it and the group move on.

However Fanny stops Lightning and alerts him to look behind them as a burnt hand reaches out from the magma and grabs the bridge.

"APPARITION"

Right when Fanny jump kicks IYH Luigi back into the lava the team look toward escaping this tower, Liy was the last one to reach the exit but before she could get there a trapdoor opens beneath her and she falls.

Waking up to a hallway in front and behind her she is uncertain what she might find.

???: YOU WANT FUN? WARIO SHOW YOU FUN!

Quickly afterwards a loud voice echoed from behind confirming her she's not alone in here and triggering her to run.

"DARK FOREST"

Liy manages to escape the Wario head and meet with her group wait for her.

The team look ahead of them to a dark dark forest, they look to one another and agree to stick together as they enter the woods however seemingly halfway through they're encountered with a dissembled twisted version of Princess Peach filled with branches & bramble, horns atop her head screaming at them.

Tree grabs his mic and joined by Pillow steps up to face this supposed 'King of this forest'!

"LAST COURSE"

Maker somehow gets separated from the group during this insanity and ends up in another neck of the woods in the body of a koopa, in front of him laid the grotesque sight of various Mario bros 3 enemies ripped to shreds and a strange Mario with no emotion in his face... but hunger...

That is it for what I already posted on Discord, things may take longer from here. Be ready for the Content Cosmos.

CONTENT COSMOS

"BAD DAY"

The next world on Death P.A.C.T.'s adventure appears akin to that of a special world, this did not encourage them to let their guard down however as Horror Mario could still be anywhere hunting them down let alone anything residing here in this seemingly harmless area.

Black Hole and Remote volunteer to check out the first level and go in, once they do the siblings find themselves in some kind of room.

They initially think it's empty until a small pixilated shell is thrown at Remote.

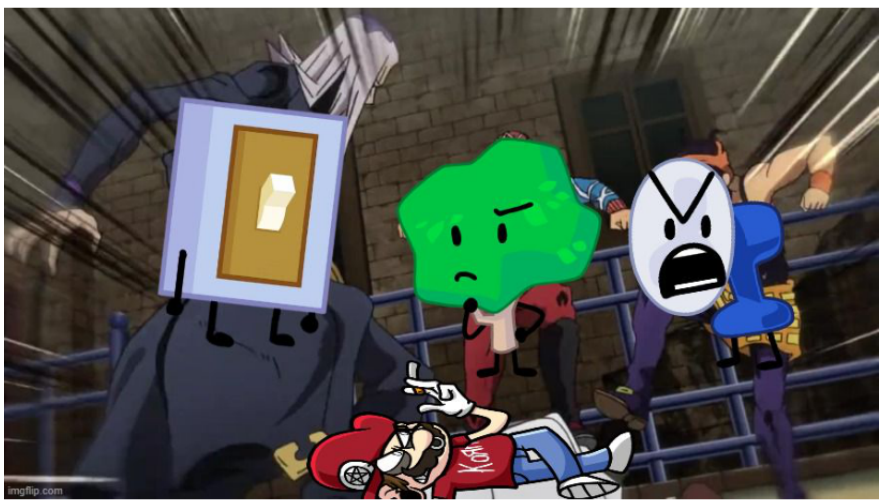
Remote: Ouch-

Black Hole: Who threw that?!

??? Ya-HOO!

Suddenly a small 16-bit Mario hops up challenging them. Black Hole and Remote prepare themselves as it seems like this Mario likes to give people a bad day.

[I couldn't think of anything for Day Out so here's a poorly made meme]



"DICTATOR"

As the team make their way over to the third level Liy stops everyone for a brief headcount to make sure they haven't left anyone behind to which a couple of them were missing; Pen and Lightning. Black Hole finds that the level had already been opened and suggests that something from in there might have taken them. Meanwhile in some desolate location of a castle Pen and Lightning were indeed captured and restrained to something.

Pen: We did what you said Mario! The fifth episode sucked! The season's done...

Dictator Mario: The season was-a-much popular than people thought Pen. You think I don't know about the new episodes?

Dictator Mario: You tried to F ME!

While the two tried to reason with the morally twisted version of Mario after the song wrapped up, Dictator Mario wasn't hearing it and launched the Banzai Bills.

EXPLOSION

When the smoke cleared the dictator expected to see nothing of the objects left only to be met with more of the group with Black Hole shielding them from the missiles himself.

Lightning: Man are we glad to see you guys!

Dictator Mario: NO!

Tree: Can you still fly us out of here Black Hole?

Black Hole: Maybe with Lightning's help.

Liy: We'd LOVE to stay and chat, but you're clearly not the hospitable type. DEATH P.A.C.T. OUT!

"RACE TRAITORS"

Death P.A.C.T. managed to escape the secret histories of Mario and don't stop running until they do and find the start of a race track with some leftover karts, only two.
Marker and Fanny hop in and rev up their engines and join in the race, Lightning also follows suit via flying much to the concern of the others who could only stay put and watch from afar.

Everything seemed rather okay and normal for the most part save for a couple of third party characters in the race which the trio didn't mind. Until the Mario racer catches up glaring at them with a deranged look of pure rage.

Mario: You're not Nintendo... you're.. you're pretendo. You're all.. RACETRAITORS!!!!!

The insane plumber starts attacking them violently starting with Fanny who won't go down without a fight.

"NO HOPE"

Fanny and Marker may not have won the race but they managed to get back to their team alive as they all move on to the final level of this zone. They go in and stumble across a ruined castle and the bodies Luigi and Peach, standing ahead looked to be another Mario. Considering the patterns and that this one had a sword at the helm Death P.A.C.T. immediately ready themselves for whatever was about to come their way. Pillow, Pie and Liy step first as this devil mario turns ready to attack.

The team had soon cleared all five levels of this zone, and are able to take on the unimaginable terrors of the Hellish Heights.

HELLISH HEIGHTS!

"GOLDEN LAND"

The gang land on their next destination, with no time to waste they attempt to head into the first level in front of them only for the circle indicating it to have vanished and a mass of shadow appearing over a bridge ahead of them with another level shown inside. Lightning flies over to survey the new area.

Lightning: ALL CLEAR-! AAAH!

Suddenly two elongated arms emerge from the shadows pulling Lightning in, the gang rush over to save him but only Pie and Bottle manage to get through while the rest got locked out. Bottle and Pie find themselves in a greyscale pixelated level, before them stood a Mario matching the theme of this place but just like all the rest this one was no good, Lightning who was initially nowhere to be seen is now found held by the two arms as GB reveals his true form. Pie keeps her cool as she and Bottle fight to save their friend.

"NO PARTY"

With Lightning successfully rescued, Death P.A.C.T. was now cleared to move forward to the next level however a new problem had been met.

Black Hole: C'mon Jr. Junior? LIGHTNING CHERRY JR?

Black Hole: Ugh of ALL times and place to wander off..!

Liy: Don't worry we'll find him. Alright team while I was against this idea, we're gonna have to split up. Bottle, Pie, Pillow, Pen, you guys and I will go this way up that ladder thing. Black Hole, you and the rest of the team look over there. Remote and Fanny, you two stay here in case Cherry Jr manages to find his way back.

The gang salute as a plan was set and everyone went their assigned paths. Once Liy's group reached the top of the mountain they don't find much of anything (much to Liy's disappointment) until Pen picks up a Nintendo DS that turns itself on with the title screen of Mario Party DS, when Pen pressed start he was suddenly sucked into the DS and finds himself in some kind of cage. Then a ringleader type voice boomed from all around him.

???: DJ Hallyboo is upset! As the host, he takes it personally when someone tries to play for free. It would be best to offer a formal apology for what you've done.

DJ Hallyboo: Good luck, Pen!

"PARANOIA"

After curiously looking into a strange red pipe, Cherry Jr falls in and lands into a place so brightly red it almost made his eyes hurt, an entirely red gangly Mario known as Mr. Virtual makes his appearance willing to challenge the little one for his life. With no other option Cherry Jr accepts despite his fear. As the battle goes on things go topsy turvy for the child while Mr. Virtual seems to revel in his terror.

Mr. Virtual: What's the matter, child...? Don't you recognize your own FATHER?

Using his ability to take on many forms Mr. Virtual shifts into a horrific version of Black Hole to scare Cherry Jr even further. The setting gets even more crazy there onward until the real Black Hole and his group show up to the rescue and get away just in time.

"OVERDUE"

Back in the real world three Death P.A.C.T.ers, Pin, Gaty and Robot Flower arrive late for the party just to find the gang nowhere to be seen a slight mess left and the tv screen in deep red static. It was clear something went horribly wrong here and Pin was the first to look right at the tv kneeling in front of it. Out of the blue something grabs her pulling her in also taking Gaty and Robot Flower with her.

The trio wake up on a road in some decrepit forest ahead of them stood a man in green overalls facing away from them. The man in green turned revealing to be some kind of monster, Pin finds a gun to hold him off with until it runs out of ammo. Robot Flower picks up her friends and starts booking it despite the seemingly endless amount of 'Luigi's' lined up around them. Just in time they make their escape.

"POWERDOWN"

Death P.A.C.T. stop at what looks to be the goal of the first mario bros level only, the goal post is broken and the deceased remains of a decapitated Toad lies along the head of Luigi rested on a pike. In the center stood no surprised "Mario" facing away from them. Liy was fed up and went to confront it.

Liy: That's it, I've had enough of this Mario Madness. HEY YOU! I know you're not what you seem, get out of here before things get ugly-!

MX?: HA HA HA! WE'LL SEE ABOUT THAT.

The 'Mario' turns growing three times in size revealing himself terrorizing the whole group and Liy joined by Black Hole still attempts to hold her ground against MX. The behemoth utilizes POW blocks to trip them over but eventually the team figure out his patterns and are starting to pull through. MX while smiling still, did not like this.

Tree: We've got this guys, as long as we're together nothing can deter us-

MX: INNONCENCE DOESN'T GET YOU FAR.

Black Hole: OH NO YOU DON'T- ACK! WOAAAAAHHHH!

Death P.A.C.T: AAAAAAHHHH

MX: WAHOOOOOOOO!

Black Hole charges at MX only to be picked up and thrown far behind the horizon with ease. In a matter of loud agonizing seconds all but two members of Death P.A.C.T. remained alive with the mutilated bodies of the rest scattered all over the place.

"DEMISE"

Tree stood mortified from everything that had happen so fast, he looks up to see MX laughing as the word "RUN!" flashes above, paralyzed by fear he could not move until Fanny pulled him by the arm encouraging him to leg it as they slide underneath MX right before he grabbed them. The sole survivors run for it as the chase was on, jumping over obstacles with the mustachioed monster on their tail.

MX: HA HA HA! GET BACK HERE!

Fanny and Tree kept running and running for who knows how long when they spot a huge pit up ahead. Tree looked back to see MX closing in, Fanny while just as scared kept her eyes ahead signaling Tree to be ready to jump.

Tree: F-Fanny what are you-?!

Fanny: GET READY TO JUMP!

MX: I'VE GOT YOU NOW!!

Fanny & Tree: AAAAAHHHH-!

???: GRRRRRRRR/GOT YA!

MX: NOOOOOOOO.....!!!

As they close their eyes and take the leap of faith MX also leaps after them almost grabbing Fanny when something bigger knocks him straight down into the pit and grabs her and Tree flying over the rest of said pit.

When the two open their eyes they find themselves in the claws of a familiar draconic creature (albeit smaller than usual) with the rest of the team all on his back alive and well.

Tree: You're all alive!

Liy: Don't worry, we're gonna get through this- HOLY FU-!!

MX: GRRRRRAAAAAAAAAAAHHHH!!!

Everyone: AAAAAAAAHHH!

CRASH

Out of nowhere MX leaps back up grabbing Black Hole by the tail and slamming him down to the ground taking the rest of the pact with him, upon impact Black Hole reverts to his humanoid form and with little delay everyone gets back up and the chase is back on.

Everyone runs straight for the exit pipe with MX quickly closing in.

Black Hole: GO GO GO!

Black Hole stops momentarily to deliver a swift uppercut to the demonic plumber making him stumble backwards buying enough time for everyone to get through and finally Black Hole who avoided a swift grab by a hair.

After barely escaping death the team exit the other end of the pipe back to the hub and take a moment to rest and recover.

Pen: pant pant Heh, So much for 'your powers are pathetic here'.

Lightning: Yeah, thank clouds you could somewhat become a cosmic serpent.

Black Hole: Yeah. That guy wasn't wrong though, my powers were weakened greatly. But.. I seem to be getting used to this world and regaining my strength the longer we're here. I might be able to get us out of this hell soon.

Liy: Then let's stick to our original plan and stay alive until you can do that. Rest up everyone, we've still gotta keep moving.

It Looks like Death P.A.C.T may still have a heightened chance against the monsters and demons on this video game world. But still, after such a deadly close call they'll need to be extra careful once they reach the Classified Castle...

CLASSIFIED CASTLE

"PROMOTION"

In the setting of some kind of podcast or talk show, Mario sits at the desk doing paper work when he notices the camera facing him.

Promo Mario: Oh! Hey Pisanos! My name is Mario, but you probably knew that already. Now you may be wondering-

While the host of his show talked Death P.A.C.T. had fallen in from the ceiling interrupting the show.

Death P.A.C.T: AAAAAAAAAAAAHHHH- OOF!

Liy: You okay.

Pie: I'm alright.

Lightning: You alright?

Fanny: I'm alright, you alright?

Tree: Yeah, you okay?

Black Hole: Fine.

Promo Mario: Sorry, who are these guys again? .... Right, right.

Promo Mario: Anyways so you and your friends here have arrived at a very crucial moment. Say how would youz guys like to be part of the new Nintendo Mania's first episode huh?

The team remained reluctant as they look to Mario raising his eyebrows twice.

Liy: Uhh give us a moment to discuss.

They huddled up once again whispering to each other their thoughts.

Death P.A.C.T: whisperingNintendo Mania, I know about this!/We shouldn't trust this guy, remember the other encounters?/I've always wanted to eb on tv/I don't think this is a good idea./I agree but what else can we do?/Let's just play along for now if anything happens we book it.

Promo Mario: Well?

Liy: We're a bit conflicted at the moment, see some of us aren't quite comfortable being on camera in from of millions. Any chance they can help out backstage?

Promo Mario: Yeah sure. And the rest of you?

Lightning: We're in.

Promo Mario: That's the attitude, let's get her rolling!

Tree, Pen, Lightning, Marker, Liy & Bottle stay on set with Mario and help him present the release of Super Mario 64. The tv screen turns on showing gameplay with Luigi standing in for his brother until he ends up trapped underwater and Mario's friendly attitude and expression starts to fade.

Meanwhile backstage Black Hole and everyone else find themselves in a voided area with a oversaturated texture-less Mario standing in the shadows before them. Black Hole takes out his mic to take him on and protect his friends.

As husks of Luigi and Peach appear beside this fake Mario the rest of the group assist Black Hole.

Mario?: You don't ever listen do you?

Mario?: We were given life. We chose to rest. We were forced to linger.

Mario?: It isn't fair.. But they didn't care. DO YOU?

"ABANDOND"

Stanley: You never listen. It hurts. I'm not having fun. Leave.

Black Hole, Cherry Jr, Fanny, Pillow, Pie and Remote stood unsure if they've beaten this being disguised as Mario or if the other half of the team are okay when a red screen of static appears behind them. Stanley then consistently threatens them to leave.

Stanley: Leave.
LEAVELEAVELEAVEL

last warp star to this castle-like zone so it has to be the last zone and there was no other indication of more levels after this one we just jumped into.

The gang remained quiet considering Tree's explanation, he wasn't wrong. Maybe this is the end of this madness. They could finally escape!

Pillow: Hey guys, look at this cool costume.

Lighting: Woah! Awesome!

Lightning takes out his camera as the rest of the group examine it.

Lightning: Hey! How about some celebratory photos?

Black Hole: Lightning, we're not at an amusement park.

Lightning: Hey, you accidentally drug this further than it should have. I think it's only fair that you do this for us.

Black Hole looks to Cherry Jr messing around with the lifeless costume alongside Pillow & Remote laughing at it.

Black Hole: sigh Fine, but just a few.

The group soon take some photos of each other next to the Mario costume until they gather up for a group shot when the Costume seems to be.. moving!

Costume: LET'S-A-GOOOOOOO!

The costume stands up challenging them to a singing battle like everything else prior. Liy take the mic to secure their final victory with everyone else behind her in case anything goes awry.

Costume: MARIO TIME! WAAHOOO!

The Costume suddenly pulls out a bloodied knife and hold Cherry Jr to it, Black Hole then takes the front and fights to save his child. Even with most of his strength returned this bout still proved to be tough, but seeing Cherry Jr's frightened expression was all the motivation needed to prevail.

The group had managed to emerge victorious but... should there be an exit of some sort? How are they supposed to get home now? A warp star suddenly appears under them taking them back to the overworld where the find the other warp stars that took them to the previous zones had all vanished, including the one that brought them here. All that remained was a strange glitching pipe at the very spot they started from.

So it is not the end after all... one last obstacle stands in the wat, but what? Will Death P.A.C.T. push through like they always have and finally return home safely or will they crash and fall like all that came before them?

Only one way to find out...

ALL STARS

With heavy hesitance but nowhere else to go Death P.A.C.T. go down the pipe and find themselves in a dark corridor over an endless void below. They each hold each other's hands and move forward, with Black Hole in the front. It was then that a voice they had not heard for a while speaks as they press on.

Horror M: Well done. Very well done.

Horror M: I must-a say, I am impressed. You're a long way from home aren't you.

Horror M: Tell me, why do you persist? No matter, all good things must come to an end.

Horror M: You broke our little deal, and I can't let-a that slide.

Horror M: And you fell right into my hands, thinking your path was clear, the goal post in sight, but no.

Horror M: Tell me, do you know what all of the creatures down there have in common?

Horror M: They're all in my game? They all.. belong.. to ME!

M: YOU CANNOT UNDO WHAT HAS BEEN STARTED. YOUR FATE WAS SET IN MOTION THE MOMENT YOU LAID EYES ON THE LITTLE CARTRAGE. ALL OF YOU ARE MY PLAYTHINGS NOW, AND WE'RE GOING TO HAVE SO MUCH FUN!!!

Ultra M: COME AND FACE ME LITTLE RATS! YOUR TIME HAS COME!

"ACT: 1"

Horror M, now turned to Ultra M emerges before Death P.A.C.T in the ruins of New Donk City. The group still hold hands as they sing together against the demon with confidence and courage.

They have come so far in this world and they WILL prevail, no matter what as long as their together! Ultra seemed to have known this and mid chorus, a bunch of hands show up one by one taking everybody down into the shadows too fast for Black Hole to stop them, only managing to save Cherry Jr who hung on his back as Black Hole chases after Ultra M.

"ACT: 2"

Black Hole had lost sight of Ultra M and a new challenger approached, a tall demonic Raccoon Mario sings against him. Cherry Jr remained silent due to how scared he was as Black Hole faces off Omega.

Soon enough Omega takes a bow and leaves the singularity to his own minions, LG, W4R and Y0SH. All three of which only infuriate Black Hole further as the moment he caught an opportunity he'd breeze right past them, little would he know until now.. that it was too late...

"ACT: 3"

Black Hole rests on one of the many pipes scattered in the void to check on Cherry Jr who was still hanging on tight behind on his back quietly and scared. He assures his son that he'll get their friends and they'll get through this and tells Junior to stay quiet for now. Black Hole then turns back ahead and is met with a sight he never EVER wanted to witness.

They've all been killed... Tree.. Remote.. Pen, Fanny, Liy... the mutilated bodies of everyone now hung on the strings of Ultra M's hand, forced to sing against him. Black Hole was paralyzed and too full of grief to do anything else.

Ultra M: COME NOW, TAKE THE STEP DON'T LOOK BACK, THERE'S NOTHING LEFT FOR YOU BEYOND THE VEIL, YOU TIRED AND YET YOU FAILED TO SAVE THEM. CLAWS UPON YOUR HEART RIP AND TEAR YOUR SOUL APART, YOU LOST

THE GAME IT'S ALWAYS THE SAME WHEN YOU STAND BEFORE A GOD.

Ultra M: COME NOW, TAKE THE STEP DON'T LOOK BACK, THERE'S NOTHING LEFT FOR YOU BEYOND THE VEIL, YOU TIRED AND YET YOU FAILED TO SAVE THEM. CLAWS UPON YOUR HEART RIP AND TEAR YOUR SOUL APART, YOU LOST THE GAME IT'S ALWAYS THE SAME WHEN YOU STAND BEFORE A GOD.

"ACT: 4"

Ultra M: DON'T YOU SEE NOW? WE'RE 12 SOULS STRONGER, AND YOU'RE ALL ALONE. YOU CAN'T WIN. SO WHY DO YOU STILL FIGHT!?

Now in a swirling void of the lost and broken Black Hole stands on the pipe only in front of Ultra M, the fight still going as Ultra M now utilizes the voices of previous opponents. Black Hole begins to remember his friends, his family and loved ones, thinking about how they would not want him to give in just because they're now gone, Lightning, Marker, Pillow, Bottle, Tree... they're all still with him in spirit helping him in the fight, with this knowledge his grief turns to fury as he floats upward raising his voice over M's, his full power finally returning.

Black Hole: No... I refuse... I won't give in. Love is lost, But I won't let you WIN! If you're hell bent on breaking me, then let it be! Dare rip out my heart, I'LL MAKE YOUR CLAWS BLEED MOOORRRE!
Ultra M: See in the stars move on lost way, all that we are liking to stay part of it all, take off all face beckoning call, JOIN US!

Assuming his full Cosmic Serpent form the fight reaches a climax as Ultra M and Black Hole go hand in hand in both combat and vocals.

Ultra M+ More: See in the stars move on lost way, all that we are liking to stay part of it all, take off all face beckoning call, JOIN US!

Horror M: SAY IT'S TRUE, ME AND YOU MAKE IT THROUGH, WHAT WE HAVE TO DO LET'S BE FREE, CAN'T YOU SEE? IT'S-A-

ME!!!!

The final battle abruptly ends in silent, when gigantic tendrils and the same hands from earlier come from no-where and restrain Black Hole in his serpent form, giant spikes then pierce through his body, despite not doing any fatal harm to him, makes certain that he cannot break out no matter how much he struggles. Finally... his struggling... stops.. he has given up...

GAME OVER?
